

O

THE OPRAH MAGAZINE

Cheaters beware

True stories of betrayal and cybersleuthing

3 simple questions that solve every dilemma

Behind the Masks

After the sins
of summer—too much
sun, not enough moisturizer—eight terrific facial treatments
offer salvation.

bag, shoe,
saleslady

Save money,
time, sanity

Come home happy

wise

1 Caffeine
can give a lift
to more than just your morning
outlook: In
this clay mask,
it's blended
with ginkgo and rosemary to tighten skin temporarily (and
a whole tube,
which lasts for months, costs less than a latte). St.
Ives Mineral Clay
Firming Mask, $3.

BLACK OPAL

4 Shea and cocoa butters
nourish sun-
parched skin,
while citric acid
and gentle
exfoliating beads
cradicate flakes.
Black Opal
Brightening
Mask/Scrub, $9.

9 ways to heal the world

6 Salicylic acid
in step one boos
cell turnover
to smooth away
fine lines; green tea in step two soothes—so
skin is radiant,
not irritated.
Estée Lauder
Perfectionist
Peel 2-Step
Enzyme
Activating
Treatment, $95.

Oprah show! see p. 2

SEPTEMBER 2006

0 74851 08616 2

$395 US/$5.50 Canada/Foreign